

Weekly update – Week ending 11th December 2020

Nativity

This week we have been learning about the Nativity story at group times and through the day, the children have loved learning about baby Jesus and have really got into the roles when recreating nativity scenes in their play – a favourite line commonly heard around preschool at the minute is 'I've got baby Jesus in my tummy'.

Christmas

We have spent the week doing lots of Christmas crafts, a lot of dressing up, creative play and just a lot of fun in general so here is collection of our week (as you can tell, dressing up has really been a hit.)

Have a fantastic weekend! From all of the staff at Cranmer Preschool.
